THE IT LIST

SNAKE CHARMER

This Bulgari Serpenti Forever flap bag in red calfskin has a shiny black-and-white-enamel snake head with malachite eyes for a clasp that looks like a piece of jewellery. Of course it does! It's Bulgari, for goodness' sake! bulgari.com

Imagine if information on consumer behaviour and trends was collated and we could read it like a fashion stock market. Guess what – Vestiaire Collective have done that. Now you can find out the resale value of your designer bags, shoes and ready-to-wear AND when the best time to sell is. Brilliant. (vestiairecollective.com)

BY GEORGE!

We're rather fond of diamond rings round here and this one by George Pragnell is no exception. Unusually, it's been made with the base facing up. Both original and marvellous, wouldn't you agree? pragnell.co.uk

TREASURED TALES

If you love jewels, you're going to adore Hidden Gems (£35). It's refreshingly different, with the focus on people's experiences with the pieces they loved, owned and lost throughout history. unicornpress.org

Bows made of ribbons can be so infuriating. They come undone too easily, then fall off and get lost. We're a great deal keener on the diamond-and-emerald variety – and now, thanks to Graff, we can all relax and wear this delightful necklace instead. graffdiamonds.com
